Saline Resident Recognized for Excellent Customer Service at Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau's ROSE Awards

DETROIT – The Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau (DMCVB) honored John Johnson of Saline for excellent customer service at the 2017 Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards last night. More than 500 people attended the celebration at the Ford Community & Performing Arts Center in Dearborn.

Johnson, customer service agent for Delta Air Lines, was named the transportation category winner. He received a $100 Visa gift card, dinner for two at the London Chop House, two Detroit Tigers game tickets, one dozen red roses, a bottle of champagne and an announcement in the next issue of Visit Detroit magazine and on visitdetroit.com.

ROSE Award nominations were provided by clients, guests, supervisors and the general public. There were 215 nominees and one winner in each of the six categories was chosen. Additionally, one overall service champion, selected by a panel of expert hospitality professionals, was also recognized.

Johnson is a true brand ambassador for Delta Air Lines. He is equally admired by his superiors and peers because of his positive attitude, professionalism, loyalty and good character.

Johnson also regularly volunteers for several charitable organizations and events, including the Skyline Café at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Save-a-Heart. His genuine compassionate nature makes him a valued member of the community.

"Metro Detroit is fortunate to have such a strong hospitality community that attracts 19 million visitors to the region each year," said Larry Alexander, DMCVB President & CEO. "Individuals like John create lasting impressions that have a major impact on visitor experiences."

WXYZ's Glenda Lewis served as mistress of ceremonies for the evening, which included entertainment by iLuminate™ and DJ Kevin. The event was sponsored by Centerplate.
