Macomb Township Resident Recognized for Excellent Customer Service at Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau's 25th Anniversary of the ROSE Awards

DETROIT – The Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau (DMCVB) honored Claudete Rotary of Macomb Township for excellent customer service at the 25th Anniversary of the Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards. More than 650 people attended the celebration at Sound Board at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit on Aug. 28, 2019.

Rotary, Housekeeper at the Hyatt Place – Detroit Utica, was recognized as the behind the scenes category winner. Rotary received a round-trip plane ticket within the US 48 States and Canada, $200, two Detroit Tigers tickets, a crystal award, one dozen roses, a bottle of champagne, an announcement in the next issue of Visit Detroit magazine and on visitdetroit.com and a full page announcement in Crain's Detroit Business.

ROSE Award nominations were provided by clients, guests, supervisors and the general public. There were 187 nominees and one winner in each of six categories was chosen. Additionally, one overall service champion was selected by a panel of judges representing a variety of professional industries.

Rotary has a way of turning lemons into lemonade and life's challenges into blessings. She takes the time to get to know and care for guests, creating lasting friendships.

She built a relationship with a Brazilian couple staying at the hotel as they permanently moved to the U.S. When she found out the wife was pregnant she threw the couple a baby shower and made sure they had everything they needed for when the baby arrived.

"Metro Detroit's talented hospitality community helps attract 19 million visitors to the region each year," said Larry Alexander, DMCVB President & CEO. "Individuals like Claudete are the driving force creating positive experiences that keep visitors coming back again and again."

WXYZ's Glenda Lewis served as mistress of ceremonies for the evening, which included entertainment by Beth Griffith-Manley, NUCLASSICA, Rodney Page, Daniel D. and Dave Santia. The Red Rose sponsor of the event was MotorCity Casino Hotel.
