Detroit Resident Recognized for Excellent Customer Service at Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau's 25th Anniversary of the ROSE Awards

DETROIT – The Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau (DMCVB) honored Brandon Page of Detroit for excellent customer service at the 25th Anniversary of the Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards. More than 650 people attended the celebration at Sound Board at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit on Aug. 28, 2019.

Page, bartender at the Apparatus Room in the Detroit Foundation Hotel, was recognized as the restaurant category winner. Page received a round-trip plane ticket within the US 48 States and Canada, $200, two Detroit Tigers tickets, a crystal award, one dozen roses, a bottle of champagne, an announcement in the next issue of Visit Detroit magazine and on visitdetroit.com and a full page announcement in Crain's Detroit Business.

ROSE Award nominations were provided by clients, guests, supervisors and the general public. There were 187 nominees and one winner in each of six categories was chosen. Additionally, one overall service champion was selected by a panel of judges representing a variety of professional industries.

Page is a kind, welcoming and consummate professional. After a couple from the suburbs came downtown on a date night and had maybe a little too much to drink, Page offered to turn their evening into a staycation and arranged a room for the night. His quick judgement call helped keep the guests and everyone else on the road safe. They were so blown away by their experience they decided to host their wedding at the restaurant.

"Metro Detroit's talented hospitality community helps attract 19 million visitors to the region each year," said Larry Alexander, DMCVB President & CEO. "Individuals like Brandon are the driving force creating positive experiences that keep visitors coming back again and again."

WXYZ's Glenda Lewis served as mistress of ceremonies for the evening, which included entertainment by Beth Griffith-Manley, NUCLASSICA, Rodney Page, Daniel D. and Dave Santia. The Red Rose sponsor of the event was MotorCity Casino Hotel.
