Dearborn Resident Recognized for Excellent Customer Service at Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau's 25th Anniversary of the ROSE Awards

DETROIT – The Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau (DMCVB) honored Abdulwahab Nagi of Dearborn for excellent customer service at the 25th Anniversary of the Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards. More than 650 people attended the celebration at Sound Board at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit on Aug. 28, 2019.

Nagi, Aircraft Load Agent for Delta Air Lines was recognized as the transportation category winner. Nagi received a round-trip plane ticket within the US 48 States and Canada, $200, two Detroit Tigers tickets, a crystal award, one dozen roses, a bottle of champagne, an announcement in the next issue of Visit Detroit magazine and on visitdetroit.com and a full page announcement in Crain's Detroit Business.

ROSE Award nominations were provided by clients, guests, supervisors and the general public. There were 187 nominees and one winner in each of six categories was chosen. Additionally, one overall service champion was selected by a panel of judges representing a variety of professional industries.

Nagi is reliable and innovative and has a track record of getting almost impossible flights going. In times of chaos and confusion he meets every challenge with a can do attitude and a sense of humor, making his number one focus the safety of employees, customers and the aircraft.

"Metro Detroit's talented hospitality community helps attract 19 million visitors to the region each year," said Larry Alexander, DMCVB President & CEO. "Individuals like Abdulwahab are the driving force creating positive experiences that keep visitors coming back again and again."

WXYZ's Glenda Lewis served as mistress of ceremonies for the evening, which included entertainment by Beth Griffith-Manley, NUCLASSICA, Rodney Page, Daniel D. and Dave Santia. The Red Rose sponsor of the event was MotorCity Casino Hotel.
