Hazel Park Resident Honored at Detroit Metro CVB Annual Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards

Detroit, Mich. – Elizabeth Physician of Hazel Park was recognized as the Behind the Scenes category winner at the Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau's (DMCVB) Recognition of Service Excellence (ROSE) Awards on Aug. 23 at the Max M. Fisher Music Center.

The ROSE Awards is an annual event hosted by the DMCVB to commend front-line hospitality workers throughout the region who deliver outstanding customer service in their industries.

As an engineer at Embassy Suites – Troy/Auburn Hills, Physician has worked behind the scenes for much of her career, but her work has never gone unnoticed. She is known among her coworkers as a hard worker, a jack-of-all-trades and a team player with a smile that can cheer anyone up. "I wish there were more like her," says one of her coworkers.

Physician was recognized as Employee of the Month by her peers twice in the past two years. Her impressive work ethic is evident in her willingness to help out other departments in the hotel. "You never hear from Elizabeth that something is not her job; she just jumps into work without being asked," says one of her coworkers.

Physician received a VIP lunch with DMCVB President & CEO Larry Alexander, dinner for two, a crystal award, one dozen red roses and Detroit Tigers tickets.

This year's ROSE Award sponsors were Cavalier Pictures, the Detroit Tigers, Delta Air Lines and People's Transit.
